

Celebrate Success...with Shapes Etc! by Susan DeMuth

1. Celebrate Success!

Start with Large Shapes Etc. Notepads and make your own awards. Write them by hand for a personal touch. Speed up the process by sending them through a printer. (see below) Positive communications are the building blocks for good home and school connections in the future. Note-pads are acid free for scrapbooks.

2. I can tie my shoe!

Idea: Punch a hole by the laces, tie on a 12" piece of yarn and kids can show off their new skill.

Sneaker SE-157

laminare for permanence

3. I can tell time!

Make a clock... Just add hands!

Clock SE-84

laminare for permanence

4. I know my colors!

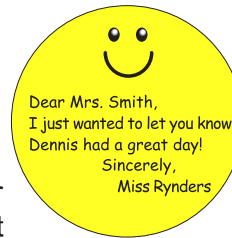

Practice naming and identifying colors. Celebrate success by making this home-made certificate!

Crayon Box SE-94

5. I had a great day!

Make an award to celebrate a milestone... Or, write something as simple as "Your child had a great day!" today"

Smile SE-176

6. I lost my tooth today!

Idea: Tape on the lost tooth and send it home!

Tooth SE-91

7. Happy Birthday

Make an award or simply write a special note in honor of the exciting day!

Cake SE-108

8. "Fill-in-the-Blank" Award

Just fill in "to", "for", and "from" on this pre-printed award!

Ribbon Award SE-21

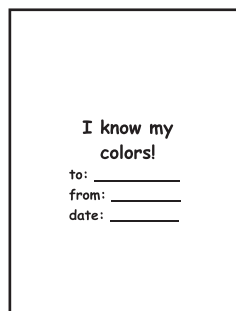

9. More Ideas

- I can write my name
- I know my alphabet
- I can count to 10
- I can count to 100
- I can count by twos
- I know 9-1-1

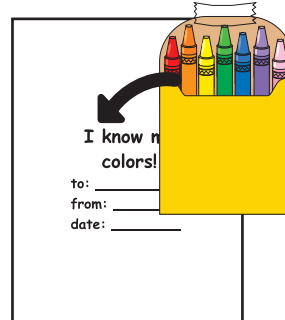

Great for Scrapbooks!
Acid Free • PH Neutral Blue Ribbon SE-183

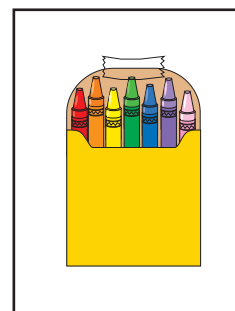

How to print on Shapes Etc. Notepads

1. Print a document on 8 1/2" x 11" paper. (It might take some experimenting to get the font to fit.)

2. Tape on a sheet of a Crayon Box notepad. Use a good brand of tape, so it's easy to peel off. later.

3. Hold it up to the light and center it. Feed it through the printer so the tape edge feeds in first.

4. The ink prints on the top layer of paper! Carefully pull off the tape... Voila!